General Conditions

Travel Costs

Travel expenses to and from Spittal an der Drau must be borne by participating choirs.

Any additional transportation costs during the event, not agreed upon beforehand, must also be covered by the choir.

Required visas must be obtained in advance by the choir.

Accommodation and Meals

Accommodation and full board (excluding beverages) are covered by the organizers for competition participants (see participation fee below).

Lodging will be arranged in hotels, guesthouses, hostels, or private rooms.

Accommodation is in shared rooms; single rooms are only available for the conductor and bus driver.

Accommodation begins with dinner on Thursday, July 9, and ends with breakfast on Monday, July 13, 2026.

An extended stay at personal expense may be arranged with early notice.

Participants

The following are considered official participants entitled to accommodation and meals for a fee of €50 per person:

- Active singers (maximum 45)
- Conductor and official accompanying persons (e.g., manager, assistant, interpreter – max. 3)
- Bus driver(s) (max. 2)

Total maximum: 50 persons

A German- or English-speaking interpreter is recommended.

For additional officials or accompanying persons, a flat rate of €250 per person for accommodation and meals will be charged (payable the day after arrival).

Supervision

Each choir will be personally hosted by members of Singkreis Porcia throughout the competition.

Awards will be determined by an international jury of choral experts.

The jury's decision is final and binding.

Registration

Applications must be submitted by January 31, 2026 (received by the Department of Culture, Spittal an der Drau).

The completed form must include:

- Selected competition pieces
- A short history of the choir (on the provided form)
- A digital photo of the choir (print resolution, not older than one year)
– granting the organizer unrestricted usage rights.

Do not send audio recordings!

Only one piece per category may be changed later (deadline: June 1, 2026).

Preferred submission is digital via the online form (link to follow).

Alternatively, send the printed form to:

Municipality of Spittal an der Drau
Department 7 – Culture & City Marketing
Burgplatz 1, A-9800 Spittal an der Drau, Austria

Participation Requirements

- Open to mixed choirs (SATB) only.
 - Minimum 16, maximum 45 singers.
 - Only amateur singers (except the conductor).
 - Participation in both categories (A and B) is required.
 - Selection of choirs will be made by a jury.

Category A – Art Song / Compulsory Works

Each choir must perform a 10-minute free program (pure singing time).

An advanced jazz or pop arrangement is allowed, a cappella only (no piano).

In addition, the following three compulsory pieces must be performed:

1. Thomas Weelkes (1576–1623) – Alleluja, I heard a voice
2. Fanny Hensel (1805–1847) – Schöne Fremde, from Gartenlieder, Op. 3
3. Javier Busto (1949) – Soñé que tú me llevabas (commissioned/unpublished work)

The score for the commissioned work (Busto) will be provided with the participation confirmation (February 2026).

The other editions must be obtained by the choir itself.

The jury will evaluate based on intonation, sound, dynamics, rhythm, style, and overall quality and will give a brief public statement of their assessment.

The Günther Mittergradnegger Prize will be awarded for the best interpretation of a contemporary work.

Category B – Folk Song

Each choir must perform a 10-minute free program of characteristic folk songs from its own country.

One song may be performed by a smaller group (minimum four singers).

Songs should be traditional and reflect the local culture.

Complex arrangements should be limited.

Songs must be performed by heart and conducted.

Accompaniment with typical folk instruments (except piano) is permitted.

The jury will assess intonation, sound, dynamics, rhythm, and style and give a brief public summary.

Performing in traditional or national costume is especially encouraged.

Additional Program Points

- For the winners' concert (Sunday), one additional piece per category must be prepared.
- During "Singing under the Linden Tree" in Millstatt (Sunday, 11:15 AM), light and cheerful songs are encouraged, preferably not from the Category B program.
- For church services on Sunday, both sacred and secular choral pieces are welcome.

Participation Fee

Upon acceptance, a fee of €50 per participant (as defined above) must be paid by March 1, 2026.

For non-participating accompanying persons, the flat rate is €250 per person, payable the day after arrival.

Payment details will be provided upon confirmation.

In case of a later cancellation by the choir, the fee will be non-refundable.
